

Adaptive Riding Institute

a.k.a
H.O.R.S.E.S. Ltd.
&
HORSES
for the Physically Challenged

P.O. Box 280 Scotts Mills, OR 97375 (503) 873-3890

www.AdaptiveRidingInstitute.org ♦ Info@AdaptiveRidingInstitute.org

a 501(c) (3) Non Profit Organization

Incorporated in 1988

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Kerrill Knaus, President*

Co-founder of the organization, she has been internationally recognized for her work with animals and the disabled. Her experience serving on other non-profit boards as well as in the day to day operations of non-profit organizations has made her an invaluable asset to ARI. Elected to the board in 1988.

John Henry, Secretary

John was active in 4-H leadership, served on advisory committees for Estacada High School and Clackamas Community College, and was an elected member of the Estacada School District's Board of Directors. He is a 28 year member, and three-time past president, of Estacada Lions Club, is an active member of the BLM Wild Horse and Burro program, and an active member of Oregon Equestrian Trails. Elected to the board in 2008.

David Roe, Treasurer

Mr. Roe is the retired vice president of Automatic Data Processing (ADP), a Fortune 500 Company. He is currently in charge of Corporate Quality Assurance for Freightliner Corporation. He is an active member of Oregon Equestrian Trails and serves as their financial advisor. Elected to the board in 1993.

Peggy Barker

Ms. Barker is a registered nurse and has been an Active volunteer with ARI for several years. She is an avid outdoor enthusiast with a love for animals, and a passion for working with children and youth. She was elected to the board in 2006.

Julie Bystrom

Mrs. Bystrom, a local farmer & business owner, performs a variety of civic duties including serving on the Building Board of the Grace Lutheran Church, teaching Sunday school for the past 16 years and volunteering as a 4-H leader for the Molalla area. Served on the board since 2000.

Susanne Rosen, Co-founder*

Co-founder of ARI, Ms. Rosen has worked with animals and disabled people for over 35 years. She began her career as an expert training assistant animals in the early 1980's with Canine Companions for Independence in California. She is a former equestrian 4-H leader. She has been a member of Oregon Equestrian Trails, The American Vaulting Association and Equine Assisted Growth and Learning Association for many years. Served on the board since 1988.

Adaptive Riding Institute

a.k.a
H.O.R.S.E.S. Ltd.
&
HORSES
for the Physically Challenged

P.O. Box 280 Scotts Mills, OR 97375 (503) 873-3890

www.AdaptiveRidingInstitute.org ♦ Info@AdaptiveRidingInstitute.org

a 501(c) (3) Non Profit Organization

Incorporated in 1988

BOARD OF DIRECTORS (cont.)

Judy Reid

I worked or volunteered as a licensed physical therapist for over 35 years, including volunteer work in Nigeria with children with polio, at a military facility working with war casualties and later at a general hospital in Tunis, Tunisia. Also I worked in San Francisco and Corvallis. After settling in Silverton, worked for Marion County Home Health Agency for 10 years and then retired from Salem Hospital Rehabilitation Center where I worked with various disabilities, including mostly neurological conditions. After retirement in 2001, I continued to volunteer for A.R.I. (now 17 years) and continued doing Tai Chi with a group in Salem (going on 20 yrs.) and am presently teaching Tai Chi at a local fitness center. My passion is being involved in outdoor projects such as gardening, landscaping, wood cutting or wilderness volunteering.

Judy Fevec

Judy is a physical therapist working 15 years with special needs children for Willamette ESD. She has worked in the field of physical therapy since 1985. She loves horses and realized her "life-long" dream of having her own horse at 43 years old and she is never going back to a horseless life. She wants to encourage those with special needs to seek good health, happiness, and to reach for their dreams. Other hobbies: knitting, reading, and yoga for special needs. Elected on the board 6/07/08.

ADVISORY BOARD

Charles Frayer*

Mr. Frayer is the Recreational Outdoor Planner, Accessibility Specialist for the Pacific Northwest Region of the U.S. Forest Service. Elected to the board in 1998. Elected to the Advisory Board in 2008.

Jack Levy

Mr. Levy is a licensed attorney formerly with the Oregon State Attorney General's office. Elected to the board in 1999 and to the Advisory Board in 2008.

Cathy Russell*

Ms. Russell is an accomplished horsewoman. Her background includes, but is not limited to; showing on the national circuit in many disciplines, riding instructor, professional horse breeder and trainer, and barn manager. Ms. Russell has been a volunteer for ARI for many years. She is very well connected in the Salem Business community. Elected to the board in 2005 and to the Advisory Board in 2008.

*denotes people who have disabilities